

World Derivatives Day 2011 Frequently Asked Questions

What is World Derivatives Day?

World Derivatives Day is a holiday to celebrate the use of derivatives all over the globe. It has been around since 1997 and the excitement grows every year.

Is this a joke?

No need to adjust your monitors, this is not a joke! We here at Chatham take ourselves seriously, but not too seriously. This is a day to have a bit of fun and win some great prizes.

What do I need to do?

It's easy. All you need to do is call Chatham's Kennett Square office between 8:30am-5:00pm EDT, or our Denver office between 8:30am-5:00pm MDT on Monday, June 13th, and wish us a "Happy World Derivatives Day!" Messages on voicemail don't count – we like to celebrate with you!

What kinds of prizes can I win?

Every caller is guaranteed to win and there is also special prize for every 5th caller as well as a Grand Prize*.

- The Grand Prize: 32GB iPad 2
- Every 5th Caller: Chatham Mug
- Every Caller: Chatham Magnetic Clip

How do I find out if I won?

The drawing for the big prize will be held at 9:30am EDT on Wednesday, June 15th at Chatham's Kennett Square office. The winner will be contacted that day and announced in the June 20th newsletter.
